SHEEP SCAB IN WESTMIDLANDS
(FROM OUR CORRESPONDENT)
ATHLONE, WESTMIDLANDS
At the weekly Petty Sessions, on the 17th inst., R.M., and other magistrates, Mr. Jeffrey, Fardrum, Athlone, and Mr. Westmeath sheep farmer were present.

Department of Agriculture and instruction for failing to report any sheep scab amongst his flock.

Mr. Dowdall, Crown Surveyor, said the Government attached a great deal of importance to the prosecution. The accused was sent up to Mr. Patrick Dolan, a newspaper, and they were sent to the gaol turned out to be affected, and the ewes had to be slaughtered. The sheep had come from Ireland to England after

Mr. Ashe-Kling, V. S., said he found some sheep on the farm three had no tags, but the others with old lesions, which he said they had been dressed, and that he was pretty definite knew he had sheep on the farm. Some of the sheep seemed to be suffering from scab for two months. It was a serious case.

Mr. Murrain, for the sheriff, and he used was a very respectable man, as known in the county. He noticed something with the sheep, and thought of maggots or itch, and dressed them, but did not the slightest idea it was coming from him to give notice to the police at Mr. Byrne, R.M.—Well, that is extraordinary, considering every police bull in the country is plastered with these notices, accepting it that he did not know any more, he, leniently with him. He is a

Miss CARR, elder daughter of the Rev. Dr. J. H. Carr, of the Episcopal church, near Cromer, died at the County Hospital yesterday afternoon as a result of injuries received a few hours after a collision between her auto-cycle and a military motor lorry.
